Profile

Thomas Keijser is senior researcher at the Business and Law Research Centre of the Radboud University (Netherlands) and visiting professor at the International Hellenic University (Greece).

From 2007-2012, Keijser was primary responsible for the Geneva Securities Convention as Senior Officer, later Consultant, at UNIDROIT. He is one of the initial authors and co-editor of the Official Commentary on the UNIDROIT Convention on Substantive Rules for Intermediated Securities (OUP, 2012), edited Transnational Securities Law (OUP, 2014), and contributed to the second edition of Transnational Commercial Law (OUP, 2015). He was a member of the expert group that elaborated the UNIDROIT Legislative Guide on Intermediated Securities (2017), organized the Ninth Transnational Commercial Law Teachers' Meeting (2018), and participated in the Oxford University working group that resulted in the book Intermediation and Beyond (Hart, 2019).

Keijser practiced as a lawyer (advocaat) for seven years. He co-organized several international conferences, and was visiting faculty at universities in Chile, Germany, Greece, Japan, the Netherlands, the Russian Federation, Spain, and the United States of America. He holds a doctoral degree in law and a master's degree in Russian literature.
